

Meet

Hannah Lucy

My name is Hannah and I live in Bournemouth with my husband Ben.

I have a legal background, I studied Law at the University of Southampton from 2004 to 2007, and then went on to complete the Legal Practice Course at Bournemouth University in 2009, for which I received a Distinction.

I joined Station Financial in 2011 as a paraplanner where I gained experience in a wide range of areas of financial planning, working closely with different advisers. I qualified as an Independent Financial Adviser in 2013 after completing my Diploma for Financial Advisers.

I love to travel when I can, having spent a gap year in Australia and New Zealand, and more recently spending my honeymoon travelling in The United States and Canada.

When I am at home I enjoy experimenting with cooking.
